Treats and Rewards

LBS is the Premier UK supplier of Treats and Rewards for all laboratory animals.

We have the most extensive range within Europe and we source our products globally to ensure variety.

Treats and Rewards can have a very positive impact on animals for example encourage foraging, reduce boredom, rewards for learned behaviours, reduce stress and add variety to diets. We have a whole range from Large to Small animals.

Please get in contact to see how we can help and any advice that might be needed.
